

There's Nothing in my Bag Today

Today I did math and science,
I toasted bread;
I halved and quartered.
I counted, measured, used my eyes,
And ears and head.
I added and subtracted along the way,
I used a magnet, blocks, and memory tray.
I learned about a rainbow and how to weigh.
So please don't say, "Anything in your bags today?"
You see I'm sharing as I play.
I learned to listen and
Speak clearly when I talk,
To wait my turn, and when inside to walk.
To put my thoughts into a phrase,
To guide my crayon through a maze.
To find my name and write it down,
To do it with a smile and not a frown.
To put my pasting brush away,
So please don't say, "What, nothing in your bag today?"
I've learned about a snail and a worm,
Remembering how to take my turn.
Helped a friend when he got stuck,
Learned that water runs off a duck.
I looked at words from left to right,
Agreed to differ, not to fight.
So please don't say, "Did you only play today?"
